

NIELS
HOE

Thursday 18 March,
9:15am – 9:45am

Niels Hoe was born and raised in Copenhagen, Denmark and have worked with Green Mobility and how to make cities liveable for 20 years. Before joining Waka Kotahi 2 years ago, Niels founded HOE360 Consulting in 2012, a consultancy that have left its mark across Europe and beyond, by specialising in providing value-adding advices for Green and Active Mobility, being Walking and Cycling, as well as sustainability Mobility projects. Before that he worked both in the public and private sector, for Consultancy companies, the Danish State Railways and the City of Copenhagen.

Will NZ ever become a pedestrian and cycle friendly society?

A look on NZ from outside, having lived in one of the most people friendly countries in the world until 2 years ago, the presenter will give his take on NZ's trajectory for becoming a better and more liveable place.